BELLEVILLE, TUESDAY, OCT. 3.

Town and Vicinity.

NO MEETING.—A quorum of members failing to appear by the appointed time, no meeting of the Town Council was held last night.

GRAIN MARKET.—The market today was steady at yesterday's rates. Receipts were large, and a considerable quantity of grain went into stores.

THE REBELS.—Orders of youths will bear in mind that the entire close at 7 o'clock to-morrow evening. Double fees will be charged for entries made after that time.

VAGRANT OWNS.—We are informed of further depredations by vagrant cows. The Council ought to settle this matter at its next meeting by appointing an active man to carry out the provisions of the Cow By-law.

MIXING BARLEY.—We are requested to advise farmers that the mixing of old and new barley renders it valueless for making purposes, as new grain sprouts so much quicker than the old. Will our friends make a note of it!

GOY ORP.—The Schooner Orpheus, which got ashore near Northport, was lighted off part of her load by the schooner M. O. Gorman, and towed to Belleville by the tug Ben. She is discharging at Campbell & Co's wharf.

MEETING TO-NIGHT.—All interested are reminded of the meeting to be held in Nelson's Hall this evening for the consideration of the project of re-opening the free reading room. The hour of the meeting is at 8:30 instead of 7:30 as previously noticed.

FISHERY NOTICE.—The Canada Gazette of this week contains the following notice: No person shall catch, kill, possess or sell white fish in Ontario between the first and tenth days of November in each year, nor salmon trout between the fifteenth of September and the first of May.

AN EARLY START.—The cricket match between the Belleville and Brighton Clubs will be commenced to-morrow at 9:30 o'clock a.m. This early start will give the players an opportunity of completing two innings, instead of resorting to the unsatisfactory expedient of deciding on the first innings or making a draw.

IMPORTANT SALE.—Attention is directed to the auction sale by Mr. C. Wilkins of Mr. W. W. Wain's furniture, which is to take place to-morrow. The furniture is new and in excellent condition, and bargains are likely to be obtained. The lease of the house to May 1st next is also to be sold.

COURT OF CHANCERY.—The sittings of this Court opened this morning before Hon. Vice-Chancellor Blake. The Toronto bar were present. Messrs. E. Fitzgerald, Q. C., and C. Mow, and from Kingston Messrs. Macfar and McDonald. It is not likely that the business will occupy more than three or four days.

LITHOGRAPHIC PRINTING.—Mr. Wm. Kelly, whose Marmora lithographic stone received an award at the Centennial, has left as our office for exhibition, a specimen of the work executed on the stone which he exhibited. The specimens, which were noticed in our columns some days ago, are very fine, and will agree who call and inspect them.

PROF. FOWLER.—This distinguished philosopher will lecture in the Metropolitan Hall on Friday, Saturday and Monday evenings next. The first two lectures will be free, and that of Monday night an admission fee of 25 cts will be charged. During the days mentioned, Professor Fowler will be consulted at the Dufres House from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

SCOTLAND YIP.—Admirers of the old Scotch songs and of Scottish comedies, will do well to attend the entertainment to be given in the Metropolitan Hall this evening by Miss Ida Robertson, Mr. Jas. Macdonald and Miss Jean Macdonald. These persons are well spoken of, and the price of admission is reasonable. See ad-vertisement.

DOMINION MONTHLY.—The October number of this excellent family magazine is before us. Its contents consist of a large number of interesting original and selected articles, and amongst the other unique features, are well illustrated portraits of Commodore Vanderbilt. Published by John Douglas & Son, Montreal, at $1.00 per annum.

VITAL STATISTICS.—The following is the return of vital statistics as registered for the month of September, 1876: Deaths, 37; marriages, 7; births, 18. Mr. Newberry, Division Registrar, who furnishes the above statement adds: "I regret to say that although I have repeatedly asked medical men, and given notices through the papers, requesting that as both the occupier of the house should report when a death takes place, yet, in most instances, the law is not at defiance, and I have no other alternative but to prosecute."

SERMON.—The Rev. Mr. Mulholland preached a very suitable sermon to the church on last Sunday morning, which was listened to with marked attention, not only by those older but by the scholars of the school. During the sermon allusion was made to the great pestilence which had been made, especially during the past three months, there being not an attendance of over one hundred.

THE KINGSTON NEWS.—In yesterday's issue of our old and respected contemporary the Kingston News, it is announced that Mr. Wm. Meek has been admitted to a partnership in the proprietorship of that paper, which will hereafter be published by Messrs. Shannon & Meek. Mr. Meek is a well known and popular man, from his connection with the press of this town, and many of our readers will join with us in wishing increased prosperity to the News under the guidance of the new firm.

THE RITZ.—The many friends of Cornelia Wilson, formerly of the 49th, but now of Stratford, will be pleased to learn that they have lost a very able and some of his skill with the rifle. At the County of Perth Rifle Matches, held at Stratford, Mr. Wilson took second prize in the first match, first in the second match, third in the third match, and second in the aggregate. He also stood second in a match between Old Countrymen and Canadians, which the former won. We heartily congratulate our old friend on his remarkable success in these matches.

GOLDEN WEDDING.—One of our rare events was celebrated in Murrayville last night, the parties in whose honor the celebration was held being Mr. Jonathan Stead, a weaver, and his aged and respected partner in life. A large assembly of friends, to the number of about fifty, gathered at the residence of Mr. Stead, and Mr. Stead, presented them with numerous and costly gifts as a memento of the occasion. A very happy evening was spent, the guests being happily entertained by the host and hostess. The party separated at an early hour. We trust that the venerable couple will live to celebrate many anniversaries of their wedding in the years to come.

PARRIS OF ROSEM.—A correspondent writes: "His Lordship the Bishop of Ontario attended in Christ Church, Thompson, on Sunday, Oct. 1st, and confirmed thirty-five persons. There were very many candidates, but four were detained at home on account of sickness. It is pleasing to see so many, both juvenile and adult, who partake of this apostolic rite or means of grace. His Lordship gave a very impressive address to those present on the different means of grace which Christians make use of for the salvation of the immortal soul, and urged in a very emphatic manner the frequent reading of the New Testament, and especially the Gospel. The Church was crowded to its utmost capacity. The Incumbent, the Rev. Mr. Foster, is deserving of great praise for his exertions in this Parish."

NEXT TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY.—The Local Convention of the Canadian Association of Canada have almost completed their arrangements for the Convention. At a largely attended meeting held last night it was resolved to request the chairman of the Board of Education to grant a half-holiday to the pupils of the public schools on the afternoon on which the Rev. Dr. Henton, of Philadelphia, is to preach to the scholars of the Sabbath Schools in town. A large number of the ladies of the various churches were discussed, all of which add to the efficiency of the Convention and the comfort of those who attend. The hymn books for the use of the Convention have been ordered, and to-morrow morning the choir of the various churches will meet to unite in practicing some hymns which have been selected by Prof. Sherwin.

Police Court.
(BEFORE A. DEANOND, P.M.)

VAGRANCY.
Margaret O'Connell, on promising to leave town, was allowed to go.

WAGES.
The case of Olive Humphrey vs. Foster, Barber & Brignall was laid over until to-morrow, by consent.

AMERICAN.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 3.—H. Nunnemacher, a distiller who has been in Europe until recently, is reported to have been arrested by the Milwaukee police on charges of being guilty. He was sentenced to three months imprisonment and a fine of $2,000.

ALBANY, Oct. 3.—The investigation of the business affairs of Sing Sing prison have been very loosely conducted. They report a general lack of economy that ought to be corrected by official charge of the department of the State. The prison is in a state of ruin, and the system which placed them temporarily in the hands of the State is a disgrace.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Arrived, the S. S. Albatross, from London.

An Atlanta, Ga., dispatch says: General Roper, commander of the department of the South, to-day ordered the quartermaster at Savannah to turn over to the Mayor of that city, for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers, the Government commission stores, amounting in value to about $5,000.

The Post band at Roper's headquarters gave a concert for the benefit of the fever victims last night. The treasurer of the Savannah Relief Committee of the Chamber of Commerce in this city acknowledges the receipt of $17,000 to date, for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers. $4,000 is acknowledged by the Brunswick, Ga., Relief Agent, and the total acknowledgment to date amounts to $25,000.

A 9 DAYS' SITTING.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A special despatch from Berlin to the Times says that considerable portions of the Russian army have received orders to be ready for immediate concentration. Cavalry and field artillery are now in a war footing, and the infantry are ready to march.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—An official dispatch says 20,000 Turks with forty cannon attacked the Serbian army on Saturday near Gredits. They were completely repulsed with heavy loss, after twelve hours' fighting.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A despatch to the Times from Sarajevo states that 2,300 armed Austrian Slavonian entered Bosnia on Saturday. They are attacking the Montenegrins and exciting the Christians to insurrection. The Turks are marching against them from Banja-Luka.

ATHENS, Oct. 2.—A meeting, attended by 4,000 persons, has been held here at which the intolerable position of the Greek provinces of Turkey was discussed. A proposal for the augmentation of the Greek army and navy was enthusiastically greeted.

CONTANTINOPLE, Oct. 3.—This morning the Porte's answer to the peace proposals of the Powers has not been given but is expected hourly.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—At a meeting of the Reform Club in Manchester last night John Bright made a speech on the Eastern question. He said he thought the meeting of Parliament was desirable. It would result in a new policy, probably under a new Ministry. It would stamp the future policy of the country with the solemn decision that the blood and treasure of England should never again be wasted in behalf of Ottoman power. Turkey should be left to the fate which Providence had decreed for her corruption and tyranny. A Constantinople special reported to-day that the Porte refused the peace proposals of the Great Powers.

A cable despatch says: The Earl of Carnarvon speaking at Derby yesterday, said that the prospects of peace in Europe are very critical. A great war, he said, may now be in the balance.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—A cable despatch says: The French Government has decided to send a plenipotentiary to Constantinople. The plenipotentiary will be M. de Launay, Minister of Foreign Affairs. The plenipotentiary will be M. de Launay, Minister of Foreign Affairs. The plenipotentiary will be M. de Launay, Minister of Foreign Affairs.

FROM CHINA.

Meeting of Foreign Representatives.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—Later from China by yesterday's steamer. Foreign interest now centres in the Chinese diplomatic representatives all assembled there, and Li Wang Chang arrived Aug. 18th, to confer with Sir Thomas Wade respecting the final settlement of long deferred questions. This visit of the Chinese functionary was postponed as long as possible, by every device that could be invented; but he is now here for the most frequent expression of his views upon subjects before the Convention.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

Dorset, Oct. 3.—Arrived out, the steamship Cebu, from New York.

The steamship Idaho, from Liverpool for New York, before reported returning, has her machinery disabled, has arrived at Liverpool.

The Daily News' special from Bucharest states that it is rumored there that Mr. Abbot, British Consul-General at Bucharest, was shot at Salonica, who was assassinated last May, has been massacred, together with his family near Salonica.

The Financial Times says 500,000 worth of American eagles were withdrawn from the Bank of England yesterday for shipment to New York. These shipments are expected to continue, the value of money in the London market being so low that loss of interest for ten days will be lost on its passage to New York, is a matter of no importance, the rate for short loans being only about 3-4 percent per annum.

The plan is drawn up so as to imply that local autonomy for Bosnia, Bulgaria and Herzegovina would be useless, although it does not formally refuse autonomy.

BERLIN, Oct. 3.—Double having been expressed at St. Petersburg concerning the intelligence that the Serbian Government had rejected the peace proposals made by the Powers to the Porte, and resolved to continue the war, it is now officially confirmed that the Serbian Government will only yield to foreign military intervention and will not entertain peace conditions unless they are first submitted to Serbia.

GLASGOW, Oct. 2.—Arrived, the steamship St. Louis from New York.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—The French publisher's communication from the Russian Embassy in this city, in which it is stated that the Czar is still in favor of peace. It is said that the Czar is still in favor of peace. It is said that the Czar is still in favor of peace.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Rev. Geo. H. Hink, pastor of the 1st Congregational church of Lansing, Rockland Co., to-day in the Common Pleas Court obtained $5,000 damages against Walter H. Sharpe, editor of the Rockland Advertiser, for a libellous article published in 1875, charging plaintiff with heinous crimes.

MOBILE, Oct. 3.—Arrived out, the steamship Scythian from Montreal.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Probabilities—In the lower lake region, falling followed by rising barometer, brisk and occasionally high southerly winds veering to west and north-west, warmer, partly cloudy weather and no rain, succeeded by falling barometer. In Middle States and New England, falling barometer, increasing westerly to southerly winds and warmer, clear, or partly cloudy weather, possibly succeeded by rain. In northern portions by occasional rain. Cautionary signals continue on Lakes Huron, Erie and Ontario.

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS.

A full stock to be found in the Warehouse, corner of Front and St. John Streets, and is now in a position to receive the public at a new and improved establishment. He has secured the best of FINEST CLASS CLOTHING. My Stock of Cloth is composed of the latest French and English patterns of new and choice fabrics, and is constantly being replenished with the most fashionable and beautiful patterns of French Dressing Coatings, Black French, and every thing pertaining to a first-class Tailoring business.

A BIG DRIVE.

Thirty dozen White and Regatta Shirts for $1 each, manufactured by A. T. Hoyt, Smart manufacturers of York State, and consigned to a house in Montreal who failed before the goods reached the house, and these goods are really worth $2 each in the ordinary way.

A CALL SOLICITED.

Belleville, June 1st, 1876.

LINEN GLACE.

It is a scientific combination of several of the best articles known for laundry use. Combines readily with the starch. Makes ironing easy by preventing the iron stains from the starch. Gives to all fabrics a perfectly plain, smooth, and shining appearance. Can be used in either hot or cold water. Brightens all colored fabrics. In the hands of the French, it is used in all the houses, such as La Roche, Moulins, Cambria, etc., etc., increasing the stiffness of the garments. Infants clothing can be splendidly done up with Linen Glace. All fabrics will keep clean, much longer than without its use, and the dirt will not adhere as readily. Try it once and we guarantee you perfect satisfaction.

A Secret of Beauty.

There is a secret in beauty. The longer that I live the more entirely am I convinced of the truth of this statement. In the course of my long life, I have seen many a young woman, who, at the age of twenty, was considered the most beautiful of her age, and who, at the age of thirty, was considered the ugliest of her age. The secret of this change is, I believe, in the care of the skin. The skin is the foundation of beauty, and it is the care of the skin that makes the difference between a young woman and an old woman. The skin is the foundation of beauty, and it is the

Tuesday, Oct. 10th.

The Convention opened at 3:15 p.m. at the Hotel, Rev. Father Sullivan, of Toronto, in the Chair.

After prayer by the Rev. V. G. Farrell, the President read his annual address, containing the report upon the standing of the Union which was represented, which was received with applause. The appointing of a Committee to examine credentials was dispensed with, every delegate being taken to the delegates of the Society he represented.

The Secretary read a communication from the Hon. Senator Vidal, introducing the Hon. Bill and Rev. Father Sullivan, representatives of the Dominion Alliance for the suppression of the liquor traffic, and a communication from the Rev. Father, regarding that he could not be personally present, but that the Hon. Bill Vidal would attend with the permission of the Convention.

At 5 o'clock, the Secretary was introduced to notify the hon. gentlemen that the Convention would be pleased to receive him on tomorrow at 11 a.m.

Committee on resolutions and addresses were then appointed, after which the Secretary read his annual report. The Treasurer submitted a statement of the financial status of the Union, which was referred to the Auditors.

The Auditors presented their report, which was accepted.

On motion the report was adopted.

The Rev. Father Sullivan presented the report of the standing of the Society in Toronto, which showed it to be in a very flourishing condition.

Mr. Doyle, for the P.M. Temperance Society of Toronto, Rev. Father Sullivan, of St. John, and Rev. Father Sullivan, of St. John, presented reports for their respective Societies, which were very interesting.

A communication was read from W. A. Lee, 2nd Vice-President, regarding his absence from the Convention.

The Convention then adjourned until 9:30 p.m. on Wednesday.

Methodist Board of Missions.

INTERESTING STATISTICS.

St. John, N. B., Oct. 11th.—At the meeting of the Central Board of Missions of the Methodist Church in Canada, now in session here, inquiries and explanations were made in regard to the mode of raising missionary funds in certain places, and also in reference to the continuing expenses of Conference districts and with a view to their diminution as much as practicable.

At a meeting held last evening, Rev. Dr. Wood presented the fifty-second annual report of the missionary boards of Canada. The report shows that in British Columbia five Indian missions, and four missionaries; in the North-west territory, eight missionaries, five missionaries and one native assistant; Manitoba, five missionaries, four missionaries and one Indian assistant; Ontario and Quebec, twenty-five missions, twenty-eight missionaries and six Indian assistants, six supplies; Japan, three missionaries; and elsewhere six German and eight French missionaries, with seven missionaries. Each domestic mission throughout Canada numbers 20, with 583 missionaries, a membership of 3,442. The total number of paid agents of the missionary board is 515; income of board was $162,639, an excess of $8,992 over expenditures.

Speeches were made by the Hon. Mr. Forster, who presided; Rev. Mr. Wood, Rev. Mr. Sullivan, the Treasurer, Rev. Templeton, Rev. North, Conference Secretary, Rev. Willoughby, Toronto; Rev. James Dove, President Newfoundland Conference, Judge McDonald, of Ontario, Rev. William Macdonald, M. P., Toronto; Mr. Chalmers, Montreal, and Rev. Dr. Douglas.

CORRECTION.

Our reporter in his marine news yesterday made an error in stating that the schooner Cataraugus will begin loading barley to-morrow at Campbell & Brown. The fact was that the Cataraugus is being loaded at the Farmer's Warehousing Company with 12,000 bushels of No. 2 barley.

PRINCE EDWARD SHOW.

The annual show of the Prince Edward County Agricultural Society was held on the 10th inst., at Picton, on the beautiful grounds of the show. The show was fully equal to those of former years, the samples of grain and vegetables shown being particularly good, while the array of fine driving horses and farm stock was the most noticeable feature of the exhibition. There was a great concourse of people, the weather being very favorable.

EFFECTS OF THE GALE.

The gale which prevailed during Monday night and yesterday was one of the severest of the season, and we fear was disastrous to shipping.

The Kingston News reports several minor casualties in that port. At the wharves, the prop. Indian broke down her bowsprit, carrying with her two of Stewart's barges, but fortunately a tug was got on before they got out of the harbor, and carried away the bowsprit of the Indian, which was lying there, and if the propeller had not been stopped the schooner would have been sunk. The sch. Mary Foster came over from the island in the gale, and being unable to make Swift's dock she dropped anchor, and dragged down as far as the bridge, which she attempted to cut down, but her crew were unable to do so. The sch. Argus, which left here yesterday morning, ran aground a short distance above Bath during the gale. She was bound for the Canal. The sch. Orient is ashore near Sackett's Harbor, and the Captain has telegraphed for assistance. The Light-guard has lost her jibboom.

The fine sch. Erie Bell, which left Kingston last week, was detained yesterday at the Lake Erie. The telegram announcing the Kingston man named John McFarlane, who was drowned. The unfortunate man leaves a wife and one child.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

The crowded state of our columns compels us to summarize our morning telegraphic despatches.

Western Virginia has gone Democratic.

The London Times in reviewing the Eastern situation says if an armistice has been granted, there is hope of peace. But unless some scheme for the good government of the Province in Turkey is given, a genuine war will ensue.

Full returns from the Ohio and Indiana election had not yet been received, but both parties claim a victory. The N. Y. Times claims Ohio and Indiana for the Republicans.

The Tribune claims Indiana, but is undecided about Ohio.

The World claims both States for the Democrats.

The Herald gives Ohio to the Republicans, and Indiana to the Democrats.

The entire business portion of Sandy Hill, N. Y., was burned last night. Loss $200,000.

Afternoon Telegrams in Brief.

A despatch from Berlin says that Von Arnim denies all and severally Bismarck's charges.

An extraordinary session of the Senate and Chamber of France is called to meet on the 30th October.

A Russian despatch from Constantinople gives the following as the result of the Turkish Council: The Council, therefore, decided that the Porte should communicate to Powers the conditions on which it would consent to a six months' armistice, which in its opinion would have the following advantages, namely, enable the Porte to allay the excitement amongst the Mussulmans and not expose the Porte to the risk of having to resume hostilities during the coming inclement season and afford an interval which would facilitate an understanding upon the conditions of peace and secure reforms to be introduced in the Empire. The Council of the Porte's acceptance of an armistice in this case will be made to the Ambassadors today. It is believed here that the Porte's conditions will be accepted.

The Financial to-day in a leading article states very positively that it has reason to believe the Porte's acceptance of an armistice will be made to the Ambassadors today. It is believed here that the Porte's conditions will be accepted.

Further returns from Ohio and Indiana do not give the result of the election.

Daily Intelligence.

WEDDED.

Some quick and witty words we say, that we will not repeat. When the sun shone with a golden glow, and a bride and groom were joined in wedlock, the guests were all in good luck.

Miscellaneous.

Never be too opinionated to accept good advice, by whomsoever offered. Yet you must think for yourself. It is well to listen to the experienced thoughts of others, and it is an agreeable pastime to give expression to your own thoughts.

KEEPING HIS WORD.

"Only a penny a day," he said. "I have no money," he said. "I will give you a penny a day," he said. "I will give you a penny a day," he said.

WIT AND HUMOR.

Serious measure - A medicine-glass. Trying times - Going to the doctor's. The charge of the light brigade - Your gun is a good one.

NE

A Pennsylvania farmer visits his country place that he has just bought. He finds the place in a state of ruin, and he is very much disappointed.

LOST.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, the 11th inst., between Belleville and the village of St. Lawrence, a black horse, with a white blaze on its face, was lost.

House to Let.

CONVENIENT HOUSE, Eight Rooms, on the side of the city, near the river. Rent reasonable. Apply at this Office.

ARMS FOR SALE.

AT VALUABLE farm of the late David Marshall, situated one-half mile west of Belleville, there is for sale a large stock of arms, including a large quantity of muskets, rifles, and pistols.

Funerals of the Day.

THE PRINTER'S DREAM.

A printer sat in his office, half asleep, and his head was bowed. He was thinking of the many things that he had done, and the many things that he had to do.

RIGHT CAN NEVER DIE.

Right cannot die, so long as the life
To reach when dawns to death it
The right shall live, and triumph too,
No matter who may scorn it;
For the right can never die, thank God!
The right can never die!

Foul heart may rust, weak hand may fall,
When faith are scorned and trampled;
But other hearts shall stand the cause,
For other hands shall wield it;
For the right must live for aye, my friends,
The right must live for aye!

Fall life may sink, false tongues may jeer,
And coward hearts may taunt it;

[illegible]

Old and young, to every tongue,
Free be our watchword, every day;
And, brethren, let us sacrifice go round,
To keep this faith abroves—
That the truth can never die, thank God!
The right can never die.

DAWN.

BY HAYATI YATIRI.

The star of the morn is whitest,
The beam of dawn is brightest;
The dew is sown,
And a blossom is
Wherein thou, my dear, delightest.

Hark! I have risen before thee,
That the world of men is over thee,
That the flush of my love
May fall from above,
And, mixed with the morn, adore thee.

[illegible]

Let the beauty of morn
In thine eyes be born,
And the thought of me awake thee.
Come forth to hear thy praises,
Which the waking world upraises;
For thy hair like golden corn,
With theodol of the sun,
And they feel be kissed by the daisies,

MARGARET F. SANDSTEDT.

"You heard him preach, Miss Harwood, and you know how interesting he was, and how he made us feel that we were his people. Why, I declare I took real comfort going to church and sitting under such preaching."

"But I was telling you about what we gave him. Well, Deacon Phineas's daughter was the one who gave him the money."

"Miss Ursula was—sing, he got up and sang that hymn, 'The Church is the Body of Christ' in the far West, and that he had a great deal of money in his mind that it was his duty to accept of. He was a very good man, and he was so kind that week and then, without me as telling, in that he was sorry to leave us, and he gave the hymn and the money."

"I can tell you there was talk when we got out that mornin', and some of the folks thought we ought to 'pint a cent' to him, and I was the one that said, 'Brother Ralph said, 'No; if they was to give us so p'ossible: so they all agreed to let him have the hymn and the money."

There is a sort of insulated seclusion in the pew, a sort of seclusion which is not a seclusion, for we can feel the sense of neighborhood, we can commune alone with God, helped, indeed, by the highest spiritual help by the feeling of the communion of saints. In God's bow everything tends to quieting and abiding, to the sense of the presence of God in the world. The voice of prayer, the solo chords of the organ, the grand uprising of the psalm, and the persuasive force of the sermon will help the hearer into an upper realm of peace.

He'd just brought a new one for Miss Orem, and she'd been so kind to let him use himself, which I thought was uncommon kind.

Then we took up a contribution to buy some furniture, but ready money was scarce just then, so we only raised enough to get a few chairs and a table.

"But Silas Hark, that sold 'em to us, was one of our members," she threw in a shiny dog for the baby and a match-box for the parrot.

"Miss Jones and Uncle Madi-ben for the new painted bedstead and a kitchen table, and Miss Orem for the new chairs and kitchen chairs and our cradle, the one we

To tell the truth, it is very stupid. The sunrise late in the morning, scramble through the streets, hasten to the church, change the business of dressing, and set out for sanctuary when the second bells are rung with a sigh of relief that the house doors shut behind them. Lucky usually puts

The morning is the father of the day. The freshest hour is the nearest to the dawn. A day well begun is commonly a day well spent. The first hour of the best looks, the wisest plans, have always been born when the mind has been invigorated by the freshness of the dawn. The day on the grass there is also a dew springing on the healthy and happy heart.

Q. The honest and the best man?

A. Jerusalem was wont to say, "In the morning I will be a good man." The day will look up. "I will sing aloud of mercy in the morning." Daniel, too, said,

The sweet, soft twilight time ought to be the best time for the contemplation of the day's events, but it is, in many houses, the least of all. A table is forbidden, brown books only are permitted, laughing is frowned upon, and conversation is discouraged. The day is over, and the evening is at hand. The day is over, and the evening is at hand. The day is over, and the evening is at hand.

start to tell you 'bout my story—I started to tell you 'bout the donation party. You see, the first year we got along good, we had a party. We had a table saw a better tea-table spread than we got that night for Miss Orsally. She could be satisfied, and she said afterward it wouldn't take more than two more parties to ruin us.

It seems that she found fault be cause we all sat to eat with 'em, just as if we was one family. And she offered all the victims for it.

"But I don't know no Aunt Betsey did no such thing. I was just at the table, and I only animal, and the human being, and all that is in the human utterance and expression, it may well be said, is not only useful and interesting. But mere pompous platitudes lack the motivating salt of heart-felt conviction. Even children are, through their own experience, aware of the difference between the words of a hypocrite and those of a sincere man. Our Sunders are far too precise to be treated so lightly as they are. They often give to the father his own weekly opportunity for gathering his whole family around him and have a pleasant time. They bring their own little treasures, and the mother sits quietly in her basket, when the sewing-machine is closed, and the provident maternal hands are allowed to cross themselves in the luxury of inaction. There are some young men, however, who, in the life of the young men, are a revelation only once in twenty years. Here is the cord of union.

Well, as I was in it, the second year came round, and it was read out in meeting after meeting, and it was read out the next Friday.

"Mr. Ormsby sent the notice, and then he said, 'I will be there, and I will be there two or three times, as if he had something particular to say, but after that' I submit he would not be there.'"

"I thought he needed kinder encouragement," says one taken up with indignation. "Mr. Ormsby. I thought he needed kinder encouragement."

"When needin' was diminished she's hurried out, as if she didn't want any one to speak to her."

"Well, Friday came, and by three o'clock, we was nearly all at the parsonage."

"The most tokens in Huron's history are found in his desecrated grave in the Chamber of Peace, who 'saw and sang' while his smother looked on, and he was the first to see the statue of old husham Huron, made upon the first rays of the dawn of civilization."

"He should be dumb when God came the outpourings of the Spirit—Reverend."

Overfulness is an exhortation wearing the garment of equality. It has been the heart of the Christian's prayer for the weather of the heart. BELEVEILLE, TUESDAY, OCT. 24.

Town and Vicinity.

THE CELLS.—No less than six prisoners and one vagrant honored the police station with their presence last night.

TOWN COUNCIL.—The proposed meeting was not held last night, a quorum of members failing to appear up to 8 o'clock.

COMPANY DEBIL.—No. 1 Company of the 4th Hastings Battalion began their annual drill in the morning last evening. All the men were present, but it is expected that at the next drill the ranks will be full.

YACHT CHARTER.—The Otago Palladium reports the charter of the schooner Gerrit Smith, which has been laid up at Otago, to carry two cargoes of barley from Tientsin to that port at 24c per bushel—a paying rate.

QUITS.—Business along the docks was very quiet this morning—in fact the harbor would have been entirely deserted by traders but for the presence of the barge Marion, which is still at Pretty's dock loading barley.

PERSONAL.—The teachers of Grosvenor School, Sidney, lately presented their Superintendent, Mr. Ralph R. Bird, with a purse of twenty-four dollars, arising from a visit to the Centennial Exhibition. Mr. Bird is now en route for Philadelphia, to enjoy the advantages of such a visit.

GRAIN MARKET.—The market was more buoyant to-day, and an advance is to be noted in barley. No. 2 sold at 65c. per bushel, and No. 1 at 75c., whilst for a few extra good samples to complete a cargo, as high as 80c. was paid. Gold is again declining, the Otago market is rather more favorable, and a further appreciation in values is looked for.

AN EFFICIENT REMEDY.—When any one is run over in St. Petersburg the carriage causing the accident is confiscated, the horses are taken to the fire brigade for public use and the driver is imprisoned and fined. Hence fewer accidents than anywhere else. Such a law as this would not answer in any free country, but there is room for improvement in our own laws in regard to occurrences of this nature.

FOR THE CENTENNIAL.—The Rome, Westmoreland and Otago Railway Company announces, through Agent G. C. Hayes, their agents here, the last cheap excursion to the Centennial Exhibition, which is to close on November 10th. Tickets have been placed at $10 from Cape Vincent to Philadelphia, over the direct route, and $11 on New York. The excursion is to take place to-morrow.

THE GRAIN TRADE.—Vessels which had been stripped of their cargoes are reported from several places as being ready for a venture in the grain trade. Freight has risen to a profitable rate, and there is still a prospect that cargoes of vessels will be able to earn the interest on the capital thus invested and to pay for wear and tear. This is all that can be said to a very few lucky ones will be able to report as the proceeds of the season of 1876.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—The Lord Bishop of Ontario and the Lord Bishop of Toronto have each issued circulars, through their calling attention to the fact that the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, has appointed the second day of November as a day of Thanksgiving. This is proper and commendable, as confusion has resulted in previous years from the Lieutenant Governor appointing one day and the Bishop another day for thanksgiving services.

BELEVEILLE AS A REPRESENTATION STATION.—Well ordered as the Grand Trunk Railway Company is in all its departments, and considerable as are the efforts made by the Company and all its officers to place the comfort of the passengers who travel over the road, yet it cannot be denied that a mistake has been made in the location of the refreshment room at Cobourg and Kingston. Under present arrangements, travellers are compelled to take their meals at unreasonable hours, whereas were the refreshment room at Kingston and Cobourg closed, and one large establishment opened at this station, the train would be more comfortable.

Mr. Lewis, Oct. 24.—A great deal of money has been paid for the purchase of land for the purpose of building a new house for the use of the Government. The land is situated in the town of Haldimand, and is of a very fertile nature. The house is to be built on a site of about 100 acres, and is to be a very large and comfortable residence for the use of the Government. San Antonio.—A telegram from San Antonio says that an accident had occurred on the Rio Grande. A steamer named Wm. Platt was wrecked on the river, and the crew were killed. The steamer was carrying a large cargo of goods, and the loss was considerable.

LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS.—A petition is in circulation, and is receiving a very large number of signatures, asking that the By-law to raise $300,000 to pay off the amount of the award under the Rattallian lease and for the opening of streets and other local improvements, be again submitted to the voters of the city.

Hastings Rifle Association.—The eighth annual prize meeting of the Hastings Rifle Association began this morning on the usual range, there being, doubtless owing to the lateness of the season, a much smaller attendance than usual.

Amongst the competitors present there were: Capt. Bailey, Lt. Strachan and Sergt. Bailey, of the 47th, and Private Hume, 14th, Kingston; Corp. J. Wilson, Stratford; Gunner E. Hooper, Napawan Station; Mr. J. L. Laidlaw, Esq., Corcoran; Lt. Colburn, Esq., Corcoran; and Capt. Cunniff, Esq., Corcoran.

Firing was begun at 9:30, with the All-oum's match, 5 rounds each at 200, 400 and 600 yards.

William Stephenson, an incorrigible vagrant, was sent to goal for two months.

Patrickweeney charged John Cummings with throwing stones at him. Defendant was fined $30 and costs.

Jacob Oke and William Jones, Indians, were charged with drawing a seine and catching fish within the limits of a fishing license granted to William Richardson, in Tyndal's Bay. The charge was proved, but the defence was that the ground was opposite the Indian reserve, and the defendants claimed a right to fish opposite the land granted to their tribe. The case was adjourned until Monday next, defendants not to embarrass the plaintiff in the meantime.

Mr. Wilkins, Fishery Overseer, watched the case on behalf of the Government. Mr. S. E. Burnett for the defence.

New York, Oct. 24.—The engineers of the Central Railway of New Jersey all struck at midnight last night, because of the reduction in wages from $60 and $40 a month to $55. All trains were stopped, the roads were closed, and the telegraph lines were cut.

Thomas Ellis, the paying teller of Park Bank, yesterday failed to appear at his desk, when he was expected to cash a check for $30,000. He had been in the bank yesterday. The bank offered a reward of $3,000. Ellis has a wife and three children.

TUESDAY, OCT. 24.
DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.
Thomas Burke and Clement Campbell were each fined $3 and costs.

Daniel Hurley, first offence, was dismissed.

VAGRANCY.
William Stephenson, an incorrigible vagrant, was sent to goal for two months.

Patrickweeney charged John Cummings with throwing stones at him. Defendant was fined $30 and costs.

Jacob Oke and William Jones, Indians, were charged with drawing a seine and catching fish within the limits of a fishing license granted to William Richardson, in Tyndal's Bay. The charge was proved, but the defence was that the ground was opposite the Indian reserve, and the defendants claimed a right to fish opposite the land granted to their tribe. The case was adjourned until Monday next, defendants not to embarrass the plaintiff in the meantime.

Mr. Wilkins, Fishery Overseer, watched the case on behalf of the Government. Mr. S. E. Burnett for the defence.

ENGINEERS' STRIKE.
TRAINS STOPPED.
A TELLER SHORT.

New York, Oct. 24.—The engineers of the Central Railway of New Jersey all struck at so, and said it was an accident, as he did not left DeWitt; when the box was thrown into the buggy, I stopped the horse as soon as I could for the purpose of seeing what was in the box; the last I saw of the box it was on the side of the road, lying standing near the roadside prisoner and some men had taken up the berries from him; I do not know that I saw any of the berries, but I saw the man DeWitt was accused of shooting the messenger and there was no reason why he should avoid me, and I would answer DeWitt even to the gallows.

ALFRED WHITEMAN, SPOKE—I live in Threlkeld; I know deceased; I know prisoner; I had been with Geo. Brittain across the river starting July 10; on Monday, and we did not hurry ourselves on; on my way home I saw a man on horseback, and I saw him again on a black gelding.

Cerner, there is a tavern, there is a kitchen; I am a prisoner, there is a home along side of the road; there was another man with a prisoner; after I took me to Geo. Brintnell's I had supper; the we sat down to have a smoke; Lloyd going down to Nelson Brintnell's; while am lying I heard cries down the road of "stop."
I will shoot," took supper at 20 min. to after Brintnell turned out the ore he down and had his supper; after tea Brint said, "we will have a comfortable smoke Lloyd left for Nelson Brintnell's when he Lloyd's supper; sat on the stoop, after tea we we heard a noise on the road; heard him cry out that he would shoot; heard him

two or three times; they heard the gun off; Brantall and I then went down to road; after reaching the gravel road a democrat coming from Belleville with people in it; they said "hurry on, we a shot fired and no doubt some harm done," we came then down to Nelson Br nells; Lloyd and I then went down to road, where prosner and Parks were;
Litchford lying in the buggy; asked w was the matter; Parks said Litchford shot. Humphries said he did not deny was the man who shot him, but was sorry it; he said they took him berries, when shot in the air to scare them, so se they would not give him berries.

he housed her as she awaited with rum-der that he did not point it high enough, said Letchford, it was then talked of tak-Humphries to Arkles' to keep him in a constable could be got; Bristol and P.
 then started with Humphries, and he brought the buggy and deceased; Humphries wanted some one to bring his horse to which I, too; prisoner's wagon was pa from the buggy in which, deceased too; prisoner's horse was headed toward Belleville, and looked at if he had been a hauled off the road; me Duffin coming wards Belleville, where I met him and road; left the body that night at N.
 Bristol's

Overseasman.—We were a good half-mile away from the road when I heard him say "I will shoot you." I thought, "If you don't stop I'll shoot you." We repeated a number of times: there were turns of a buggy track on the road between the two rigs; those circle tracks were in the brush, and about a hundred paces from Parks' and there was one fresh buggy track cutting a circle track in the road; I don't think I could run with such a sized box of berries and put it in a buggy when it was moving; this buggy must have stopped where the berries were put in; I think a box of that size could be thrown two twenty men and they not know there would be very little room between men sitting on the seat of the buggies could not be put in except they made for it; it had only got Humphries' horse ed around when I met Duffin; the two did not act like a man that wanted to away; he made no attempt to escape.

To Mr. Britton—I neither measure tried the weight of the box of berries.

NELSON BRINTNELL, sworn—Live in low; knew deceased on the night he killed heard a shot fired; I was then own house; I then went to bed; my and Mr. Whitcomb about ten minutes away to my house after the shot was hear loud singing on the road," my wife and I then went towards the road to meet the people on the road," they stopped and Parks told me that Latchford was shot," asked I, "who shot him," he pointed to Humphries, saying, "that G. . . . I ditch here," I then placed Parker to explain, when Parks said upon his mouth he would either shoot or murder him, or something to that effect, Parks said he was driving along and a boy threw into his buggy and Latchford shot," answer said nothing," in the next moment a man came up, and after talking the matter over we took the body to the house, Parks said he would take it to the house and he could take him home."

cently, Parks was to go home and give a sermon to take the doomsday home: He glomored was left in my charge, when Parks came and took him to Bellefonte, where an inquest held on the body on Monday.

Cross-examined—Parks was acting very when we took the body to my house, he has his hand to his pocket and to get a paper, swearing he would not prisoner, Parks very violent and had to be kept away from prisoner; prisoner tried to speak two or three times, when Parks stopped him; I think Parks was under the influence of liquor; he was in the mood of decced, acting natural in the mood of decced, acting natural there would be no room between two men after I had taken him

MORNING DESPATCHES.

EUROPEAN.

THE EASTERN WAR.

BRITISH TROOPS FOR MALTA.

The Six Weeks' Armistice.

DEPRESSION IN SERBIA.

Fighting before Deligrad.

STARVING SERBIANS IN THE MOUNTAINS.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—A despatch to the Standard, dated Belgrade, Wednesday night, says that the capture of Boguski, this evening, was not an advance along both banks of the Morava. Fighting was going on to-day on the slopes of Deligrad.

The Russian army, "it is understood, in view of the possibility of further serious complications in the East, that the Peninsular and Oriental Company's steamship Cathay has been chartered to transport troops at this port for Malta on the 28th inst.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—A Times' despatch from Vienna confirms the statement that the Porte had informed Gen. Ignatieff of its readiness to consent to a six weeks' armistice if all the Powers wished it. The correspondent adds:
—There would have been no difficulty in fulfilling this condition, but it turns out that the Porte will insist on the stipulation that the Powers pledge themselves to prolong the armistice if peace is not made within the stipulated time. The similar attitude of Russia will accept this condition. It may, however, be expected that the Porte has not said the last word.

The Belgrade correspondent of the Times
telegraphs as follows:—"There has been no sign of the beginning of the war with despise as new, not only in Belgrade, but throughout the Servia. All ranks are well, and the morale is high. It now seems that the Servians, with the view of intensifying the Turks, have purposely exaggerated the number of Russian troops not more than 10,000 having really arrived in the country. The apathy shown by the Ser-vians concerning the progress of the war is something that under the similar circumstances could scarcely be found in any country of the world. Although reports of the capture of Djinnia have been current for 24 hours, not a single Servian soldier has been seen. It is not the feeling of coming disaster is general. If Djinnia is really taken, Russia might avail herself of the present state of affairs to bring about immediate peace, and from what I hear it is surprised if she makes the attempt. Without her assistance Servia must at all appearances very soon succumb. All the correspondents agree that the conditions proposed by the Servian population. They also confirm the news that a battle was proceeding yesterday before Deligrad. From the fact that fighting is still going on, it is evident that the Turks have not yet gained possession of Djinnia.

The Vienna correspondent of the New York Herald has expressed doubts whether the conditions proposed by the Servians in connection with a short armistice would meet with the approval of the Russian Government.

Belgrade is actively endeavoring to induce the Porte to reconsider its reply and accept the armistice unconditionally. A compromise is not desired, of it is believed that Russia will push matters to extremes at the present juncture.

A Belgrade despatch to the Daily News says:—"It is reported that Gen. Thiersch has demanded the resignation of the Servian Minister of War. The Minister of the Interior has gone to Deligrad to endeavor to effect a reconciliation.

The Belgrade correspondent of the Times
states that in the country between Parajin and Deligrad, and the mountains near Sala-chir there are 11,000 men, women and children who are almost naked and literally starving.

Robbery in St. Louis.

NOMINATION DECLINED.

CONFESSION OF A MURDERER.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.

St. Louis, Oct. 26.—While Joseph Rogers was walking through an alley on Tuesday morning, he was assaulted by some negro prostitutes, who robbed him of three $1,000 bills, and promiscuous notes for $8,500. Despairing of recovering his property, he attempted suicide, but was prevented from doing so by the police, who arrested him, and today when they found one of the bonds and all the notes.

New York, Oct. 26th.—Daniel E. Sickles declines the Republican nomination to Congress.

Frank McDonald, under arrest for the murder of Maggie Reiter, a 17-year old girl, who was killed on August 16th last, was today taken to the scene of the murder, where he broke down and made a full confession of the crime. At one point in the confession the name of Maggie was mentioned, and she was grappled with by the force of a tiger, and she took her life. While the officers were conveying him to the jail, he was taken to the train to take him to Jamaica, a crowd gathered with a rope, and the prisoner was taken with great difficulty from immediate death by the police.

GRAIN MARKET.—The market to-day was unchanged, prices of barley ranging from 65c to 75c, while oats sold at 35c to 45c. Receipts large.

COMING.—We were visited to-day by Mr. Geo. Peck, agent for Tom Thump's troupe. The little folk are to appear in the Metropolitan Hall on the 7th November.

REV. MR. BLAND.—The many friends of this Rev. gentleman in Belleville will regret to learn the following news: "A letter from Quebec to the Montreal Witness says: Rev. Mr. Bland, pastor of the Methodist Church, is seriously ill with a gastric fever."

An usual Walsh & Co., Commercial House, are taking the lead in overcoats. They are now selling an overcoat for $3.50 and a pair of pants for $2.50, which are the wonder of the age. They also are at present an unusually large and varied stock of winter clothing in all styles, shades and qualities at extraordinary low prices. It

ROWDINESS.—Mr. Wm. Thompson, who lives on the Canfield road, informs us that about 1:30 this morning a number of ruffians broke into his house, breaking a number of windows and doing much damage. Two or three children who slept in a bed close to the window had a very narrow escape. They also assaulted Mr. Andrews, who lives in the same neighborhood, but did him no damage there. The parties were unknown, but they are doubtless part of a gang who have of late committed numerous outrages in that locality, and are becoming the terror of the neighborhood. We commend the master to the attention of the police authorities, who, we hope, take such action as will prevent the repetition of such occurrences in the future.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM.—A contemporary has the following seasonable remarks: "The season of the year has arrived when aspirants for honors at the disposal of the sun get up early in the morning and look 'constitutional' walks up and down the back streets. Like the ingenious men these always are, they unite business and pleasure into such a perfect compound that you can't tell 'Vidua' from 'Mollusca.' If your name appears upon the list of voters you are a personal friend and the bowing and handshaking necessary to show your respect for you would entail a first-class alarm clock. They are the men who ask you to come, but beware! They will take some soon enough, and rate-payers will do well to keep a sharp look out for the best men, and give them a hearty support."

SOME OF THE ADVANTAGES.—The advantages of an evening paper for advertising purposes are apparent on reflection. In the morning the day's work is before the husband and housewife; the paper is taken up, and a hasty glance given to the telegrams and local news, and is thrown away for the cause of the day. There is no time to read further, and before creating the paper is transformed into a dress pattern or into a fire-lighter. The evening paper comes in at a time when the laborer is at home, and the time is given to reading. The telegrams, local news, and miscellany are all read, and still there are hours to spare, and the advertisements are read and re-read, and the bargains offered discussed in the family circle, and conclusions reached as to where to make purchases.

STORM ON THE LAKE.—The Oswego Palladium of Tuesday says of the storm of Monday night: "The wind had been blowing all day, but about eight o'clock it suddenly veered to the northwest, and the storm came but-and-foremost. It was not of long duration here, but on the lake it continued until after eleven o'clock, stirring up the water until the sea seemed a monstrous monster. During the afternoon several vessels left port and many of them doubtless were compelled to go to South Bay. The schooner 'Mark' when she arrived Pultneyville last evening had two of her ribs rent into ribbons and had to return to port. The schooner 'Great Western,' coming over from Canada, lost a piece of her mainmast, and was obliged to bedevil was damaged. The schooner 'Oswego Bay,' with barley for port, encountered the storm soon after passing the Duke. Captain Ely says that he never POLICE MATTERS.—There were but three inmates of the cells last night, and yet the place this morning "smelled to heaven" as if a skunk had been in contact with the main door. It soon made its way to the land and before the damage could be repaired had wet about 4,000 bushels of barley."

CLIVTON TO FARMER.—An exchange of cautions follows against a swindle which is thus described: "A farmer in Homer, by the name of Erasmus Brooks, has been swindled out of $700. Two men called upon him, and sought to sell him a half interest in a failing mill. He declined the purchase. They then requested him to lend him his insurance to a neighbor to purchase. He was to give his name to the amount. This was to be shown to the neighbor, and, after he had, by his influence, been led to buy the other half interest for $700, his note was to be returned to him, and he to give $100 as a bonus for his trouble. He had not seen the parties since. They raised the money on his note, and he to sell his house, and has heavy obligations to meet when it becomes due. Strange it is that any case should be misled by such a scheme of fraud."

REV. NOTES.—The Kingston 19th said recently: "The annual match of the Hastings Rifle Association will take place Tuesday and following days at the rifle ranges, Belleville. Some of our boys are going up, and if we can't beat the Belleville men on water we can win on the land. We raised the money on his note, and he to sell his house, and has heavy obligations to meet when it becomes due. Strange it is that any case should be misled by such a scheme of fraud."

THE POSITION OF SERVIA.

LOVITCH, Oct. 27.—The Times' correspondent writes from Belgrade: "The depressing here continues. I cannot help thinking we are at the beginning of the end. If the Russo-Servian army is left unaided the Turks will surely make a dash for the city. They are advancing slowly and irresistibly. However, unless an armistice is concluded, General Tchernayeff will certainly fight to the last. There is no reason to doubt that the Servian Government have lost all control over Tchernayeff, who is completely at variance with the Minister of War."

With regard to the rumors of a crisis, the correspondent says:—"Doubtless the Ministers would gladly resign if the Prince would accept their resignations and if they could get others to replace them, but these difficulties make a change of Ministry impossible. It is generally expected here that Servia will be created a Kingdom, but this anticipation only increases the growing dread of Russian vengeance among the better class of Servians. Only thirty Russians arrived yesterday."

The Times' correspondent with the Turkish army telegraphs from Natch, Oct. 25, that the Servians on the 21st evacuated Kanak after partly destroying the place. The Turks now hold the town and have found reliable boats there.

The Times' Vienna despatch announces that Prince Chika has arrived there, and goes to England, which Power his mission mainly concerns. What I hear confirms the impression that the Russian will be successful.

The Vienna correspondent of the Times confirms the capture of Djunis by the Turks. He gives the substantial narrative of the five days' struggle, from the 19th to the 23rd inclusive, and says it was unquestionably the greatest success during the campaign. In consequence of their defeat the main part of the Servian army has withdrawn to Deligrad, but a part at least of Horvatovic's forces has been out in the direction of Krusoe, where it can, however, retreat by the Servian Morava Gorge. It is not known whether the Servians still lie on the left bank of the Morava, but this seems to be immaterial. They cannot make a stand there, as they would be liable to cut off from the river and forced into the camp formed by the confluence of the two branches of the Morava. Unless an armistice is concluded the Servians must make back their defensive line from Aleksandria and Deligrad and Paratikon and Cuprija, which would open the Morava Valley with all its resources to the Turks.

A despatch to the Times' latest Berlin, Oct. 26, 8 p.m., says:—"There is reason to believe that Russia being herself aware of war is despatching to induce Greece and Rumania to take the field. They however hesitate."

The correspondent of the North German Gazette from St. Petersburg denies the more alarming reports, such as those of the concentration of large forces on the Turkish frontier and the calling out of the reserves. The writer says the army is not yet on a war footing, only preliminary measures have been taken, so that in case of war a considerable army could be in readiness without delay.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 26.—The Phare of Bosphore newspaper of this city publishes the text of the speech delivered by Gen. Ignatieff, today—No. 1,800, No. 2, 720, No. 3, 720. The Ottomans have shipped 25,000 men from this port. A number of farmers are still holding back, expecting to obtain better prices.

European Armies and Navies.

The peace and war footing of the Russian army in 1875—and there has been little change since—was as follows:

Infantry	550,000
Cavalry	100,000
Artillery	100,000
Engineers	10,000
Medical	10,000
Telegraph	10,000
Other	10,000
Total	880,000

To this number may be added 120,000 men, organized as local troops, and 180,000 men, organized as regular troops.

Every man between 18 and 40 years of age is enlisted for military duty, and of course he can be recruited to any extent for war, as may be seen by the following table, representing the present strength of the army:

	Men.	Horses.
Infantry	550,000	150,000
Cavalry	100,000	60,000
Artillery	100,000	60,000
Engineers	10,000	10,000
Medical	10,000	10,000
Telegraph	10,000	10,000
Other	10,000	10,000
Total	880,000	280,000

Germany has a navy consisting of the present limit of 40 steam ironclads, 20 ironclads of the latest style, besides 45 sailing ships and hospital ships, besides 1000 small boats.

The Russian fleet consists of 274 steam vessels—30 of the number being ironclads, 244 of the number being sailing vessels. These vessels in all 1,400 guns, but only three of the vessels carry ordnance of large caliber.

Great Britain possesses:

In the field of all grades. 105,434 Reserve and auxiliary. 34,201

This is equivalent of 62,234 men in India, and 21,400 serving in the colonies, part of whom may be called upon in case of war.

The force of France consists of:

Active army 400,000 Reserve of active army 100,000 Temporary exemptions 140,000 Permanent part of army 640,000

Total 1,180,000

It is estimated that the present military necessity of the effective force of the army would not greatly exceed 1,000,000 men, although the number of men actually in the field would be thrown into the field after a reasonable war.

The war establishment of Austria is as follows:

Infantry 450,000 Cavalry 100,000 Artillery 100,000 Engineers 10,000 Miscellaneous 10,000

Total 760,000

The war footing of the Italian army consists of 300,000 men, proportionately divided between the different branches of the service.

An important factor in the strength of the navy is the number of sailing vessels. The British navy has 340 steam vessels of every description, many of them the best vessels in the world.

France is only second to Great Britain. She possesses 300 steam vessels of war, and 110 sailing vessels, but as they are of smaller tonnage than those of Great which are not confined to the neighborhood in question, but are unfortunately general throughout the country.

OR SMOKING.—"No smoking," says an exchange, ought to be posted on every barn. There is not much difference between having a barn full of smoke and a barn full of men. The smoke is the result of the horse and the men are the result of the smoke. There is no horse man much more than the one who, when an employer comes around, slips his pipe into his pocket, or holds his hand over it, as if it were a little bird. All such fellows should be paid off, started off, and kept off. As for the farmer himself going into the barn with a pipe in his mouth, no complaints can be made; but if his establishment burns up, no-body should cry, unless it be the wife and children. Lighting and smoking, and spontaneous combustion combined, do not cause as many barns to be burnt as the practice of smoking.

HOW TO GET RID OF ROACHES.—An exchange says: "A universal pest, in city houses at least, is the roach, and here we have a secret for our housekeeping readers, which they will thank us for revealing, namely the secret of getting rid of roaches without using any poisonous, unless or otherwise objectionable substance in their extermination. It is only necessary to use pulverized borax freely wherever the roach lives. Throw it into cracks, scatter it on shelves under their paper covers, and in drawers and other haunts of the roaches, and within a week it will puzzle an entomologist to discover even the faint remains of a roach anywhere in the house. Nothing could be more cleanly than this method of extermination, and it is held in honor all over the world by roach, red ants and other like creatures, whose disappearance is a compliment to it."

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 30.—An Overland special says: Jailor, in charge of that place, while feeding prisoners yesterday, was knocked down by two, who escaped. His injuries are serious.

Annie Simmons and Mary Boules, both colored, having quarrelled, resulted in a fight with knives. They met by agreement in front of a Baptist Church last night, as witnesses being present, and they fought furiously for half an hour. Boules was stabbed and gashed horribly in six different places, her right eye being cut out. Simmons was only slightly hurt, and has been arrested. The cause of trouble is not known.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The first visit by Stokes, on his arrival in New York, was to Commodore Vanderbilt, who, Stokes says, has been very kind to him. Stokes is very free in stating that Auburn and Sing Sing prisons are entirely devoid of any moral or religious instruction, and that the inmates are constantly kept for money from convicts; that the latter can easily purchase immunity from punishment or the rigors of confinement by unlimited admission to the hospital, or any luxuries they may desire in the way of food, provided they pay for the same.

No tidings as yet of the steamer Presidio. Arrival, steamship district, from Bordeaux.

A rural paper remarks that "summer has faded in exquisite beauty and loveliness, while autumn, with her fairy, thin hand, hath decked the woodlands in gorgeous array."

The Calcutta wheat trade has had a wonderful rise lately. In 1870 the quantity exported was 2,000 tons; in 1865, 10,000 tons; in 1874, 50,000 tons. Last year 50,000 tons of grain already 120,000 have been exported from Calcutta alone.

Nobility and riches are reputed to make men happy; yet it is to be commended, believe me, to be poor and contented.

In growing old, guard against increasing temptation to gossip about the recollections of the world that has been left behind. Better in this matter follow the ignorance of youth with the reticence of age.

Daily Intelligencer.

BELLEVILLE, TUESDAY, OCT. 31.

Town and Vicinity.

ENGLISH MAIL.—The mails which arrived by the Canadian were distributed here this morning.

HEAVY RAIN-FALL.—Two tremendously heavy showers of rain fell this morning at an early hour. There has not been a heavier rain-fall in the same space of time previously this season.

THE NEW GROUND MONTREAL.—For November is a good number and contains several pleasing tales, useful receipts, a chess column, &c. &c. A picture of William Cullen Bryant adorns the frontispiece.

GRAND JUNCTION.—At the meeting of the Town Council last night, a first reading was given to a By-law providing for the extension of the Grand Junction Railway Company, to aid in the completion of the road to Peterborough.

JUST RECEIVED.—This day at the Elephant Clothing Store, Front Street, a large lot of boys' and youths' attire. Boys' overcoats and children's jackets—something new. See them before they all are gone. Headquarters for clothing.

AT HOME.—The following Canadian visitors have registered their names at the London offices of the Canadian Government during the week ending 10th October:—E. G. Henderson, M.D., Belleville; F. R. Lingham, Belleville; Major R. Evans, London; A. W. Landon, Belleville; A. Marton, M.D., Montreal; H. R. Beveridge, Montreal.

AS USUAL.—At the Commercial House, are selling the lead in overcoats. They are now selling at overcoat for $3.50 and a pair-jacket for $2.50, which are the lowest of the year. They also show at present an unusually large and varied stock of winter clothing in all styles, shades and qualities at extraordinary low prices.

Y. M. C. A.—A number of young men met last night in the room at the Young Men's Association and organized a Young Men's Christian Association for the Town of Belleville. A constitution was adopted and those present enrolled themselves as members. An adjourned meeting will be held on the same place to-morrow (Wednesday) evening at eight o'clock, when the election of officers and other business will be proceeded with.

POLICE MATTERS.—Two weeks have elapsed since the control of the police passed into the hands of the Council, and yet the Market and Police Committee have been doing nothing to amend the situation of the affairs of the Department. It is high time that something was done. Constable McCoy has so far recovered from his recent severe illness as to be fit for duty again. There were two prisoners in the cells last night.

HALLOWEEN.—The merry old festival of last night will be celebrated tonight by a few hints how to do so will be found in another column. Doubtless the boys will be abroad and play many mischievous tricks. If they will take a word of advice, they will refrain from damaging any person's property, as the police will be abroad, and may happen to capture some of those who offend in this way. Otherwise, probably the legitimate fun of the occasion will not be interfered with.

THE MADON MURDERER.—Since his condemnation McQuillan, the Madon wife murderer, has been anything more nervous and uncommunicative than before. A few days ago he was detected making preparations to commit suicide, and the Prison Inspector was communicated with. By Mr. Langmuir's direction a man has been engaged to watch McQuillan at night, in order to prevent him from carrying out any desperate design which he may have formed against his own life. The prisoner has lately taken an interest in the regular weekly prayer meeting in the Church. For some time past Mr. Gray, who has been going to the same meeting before last made a trip to the old country for the purpose of relaxation. He returned in September of last year apparently with renewed vigor, but last week he was suddenly attacked by what appeared to be softening of the brain and blindness, which necessitated a total cessation from work. He accordingly retired all summer, his place being supplied by the Rev. Mr. Langmuir.

who only called the other day for Scotland. Mr. Gray, who was fifty-seven years of age, was born in the City of Glasgow, Scotland, and at an early age he came out to Canada. He received his earlier theological training at Queen's University.

GRAIN MARKET.—The market this morning was dull and business was very light. No. 1 barley was bought at 70c and No. 2 at 65c.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.—A special meeting of the Board was held in the Court last night, but there being a bare quorum present, no business was done. Another meeting will be held on Tuesday evening next.

FISHERY QUESTION.—Decision was given yesterday by the Police Magistrate in the case of Wm. Green and John Oka, charged with obstructing Asa Richardson in fishing in front of the Indian reserve, on ground leased to him. Oka was fined $2 and costs and Green was dismissed.

NEW MUSIC.—Mr. Reynolds, of Bridge Street, has sent us a copy of one of Messrs. Northcote's latest musical issues, entitled "Only Yesterday's Thought." The poetry is by Phoebe Coker, music by R. C. Ambrose. It is sufficient to say that it is a beautiful sacred song that it is one of Mr. Sankey's favorites.

ALL-HALLOWEEN.

Hallowe'en, or, as it is called in Scotland, "Hallowe'en," which falls on the 31st of October, is always a time for the performance of certain usages in the old countries, more especially in Scotland and Ireland. This is the night when witches and fairies are supposed to hold high carnival and on which the young people enjoy certain festive revels, such as cracking nuts, ducking for apples, and performing corn-law spells by which they may discover their lovers or future husbands, or whether their lovers are found or not. "Burns' poem entitled "Hallowe'en," describes the supernatural customs of the Scotch people concerning this festival.

The young women of Scotland, in former times, and a many at the present time, determined the height and size of their husbands by drawing cabbage blind-fold on All-Hallowe'en. The girls, in the evening, the English, flinging nuts into the air. It is mentioned by Burns that "the first ceremony of Hallowe'en is pulling out a stock or plant of kail. They must go out hand in hand, with eye shut, and pull the first they meet with. It being light or little, straight or crooked, is prophetic of the size and shape of the grand object of all their spells: the husband. If a very tall, or tall, or short, or the root that is the tocher of fortune; and the taste of the nut, that is the taste of the stern—indicative of the natural temper and disposition. Lastly, the stems or roots, to give them their own appellation. The nuts are placed around the head of the girl, and the Christian name of the people whose chance brings into the house, according to the priority of placing the nuts, the names in question.

But the nuts is another favorite charm in Scotland. They name the lad and take to each particular nut, as they lay them in the fire, and the nuts are then burned quietly together, or start from beside one another, the course and issue of the courtship.

In Ireland, the young women wished to know if their lovers were faithful, they named the nuts on the base of the grate, naming the nuts after the lovers. If the nut cracked or jumped, the lover would prove true. If it began to blaze or burn, he had a regard for the person making the trial. If the nut named after the girl and her lover burned together, they would be married.

Eating an apple at a glass was another charm once in vogue. "Take a candle and eat an apple, to look at the apple as you should eat it, and (tradition says) you should comb your hair all the time) the face of your conjugal companion to be seen in this glass, as if peeping over your shoulder."

There are numerous other superstitions that are in vogue in various parts of the British Isles on other festivals. On St. Mark's Eve the custom still lingers among the natives of Newfoundland, to throw to the water a small piece of bread, and if it floats, it is a sign that the party never exceeds three. They most in silence make the cakes and soon as the clock strikes twelve they each break a portion off to eat; and when done, they bed, and when done, without speaking a word, for, if one speaks, the spell is broken. Those that are to be married, are the victims of their sweethearts' hushing after them. Those that are to be married, are the victims of their sweethearts' hushing after them.

There is another dumb ceremony also prevalent in Northamptonshire of eating the yolk of an egg in silence, and then placing it with the yolk in a bowl, and if the heart is sure to make his way in some way or other before morning.

"Throwing a stocking" is a singular sort of love divination on the first evening of a wedding. After the bride has retired, and while she is undressing, she delivers one of her stockings to a female attendant, who throws it at random among the company assembled. The person who catches the stocking is supposed to be the next to enter into the matrimonial state.

The Welsh have a play in which the youth of both sexes for an even-leaved night of the year, in order to prevent him from carrying out any desperate design which he may have formed against his own life. The prisoner has lately taken an interest in the regular weekly prayer meeting in the Church. For some time past Mr. Gray, who has been going to the same meeting before last made a trip to the old country for the purpose of relaxation. He returned in September of last year apparently with renewed vigor, but last week he was suddenly attacked by what appeared to be softening of the brain and blindness, which necessitated a total cessation from work. He accordingly retired all summer, his place being supplied by the Rev. Mr. Langmuir.

The Polar Expedition.

THE STORY OF THE JOURNEY.

CAPT. HALL'S GRAVE.

SUFFERINGS OF SLEDGING PARTIES.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The British Arctic Expedition brought home a specimen of what is known as the Arctic voyage.

The Arctic voyage was held in the Arctic Expedition, has sent a telegram to the Admiralty announcing his return. His dispatch contains only the following additional particulars of the voyage.—The Polar Sea is never navigable. The ordinary ice averages eighty feet in thickness. Animal life and northern migration of birds and seals is the Cape Columbia. A memorial tablet was erected to Captain Hall, of the Polar Expedition, at Point Barrow. Equipment traces were on the west shore, in latitude 81° 32' 22", where they cross to Greenland. The impracticability of reaching the north pole was proved; all the neighboring lands were discovered.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The narrative of the Arctic Expedition is published. It relates that after first encountering ice the Expedition was delayed several days in Port Payer. It started thence August 8th, but before reaching the shore of Grinnell Land the vessels were caught in an ice pack. After this their progress southward was an incessant struggle through chaos opening made in the ice by the wind and current, the channels through which the ships were slowly making their way.

The Discovery wintered in a well sheltered harbor on the west side of Hall's Basin, a few miles north of Point Barrow. The Alert plied forward and round the north end of Grinnell Land, but instead of finding an expected continuous coast of 100 miles to the north, she found herself on the border of an extensive sea with impenetrable ice on every side and no harbor. The ship wintered behind a barrier of grounded ice, and the Discovery was forced to anchor in a small bay, the Discovery was forced to anchor in a small bay, the Discovery was forced to anchor in a small bay.

Why Crammerymen are Needed.

A writer insists that the private dairy is better for making butter than the creamery. So far as this article is concerned, the dairyman to correct his bad practices, and to make his butter as good as the creamery butter, he must be a creameryman. The creameryman is a man who is not a dairyman, but a man who is not a dairyman, but a man who is not a dairyman, but a man who is not a dairyman, but a man who is not a dairyman, but a
